

WOODY PLANT CONTROL

TREE CONTROL OPTIONS

Option 1: Cut down trees,
Treat, tarp or remove stumps,
Remove or leave debris

Option 2: Treat standing trees

HERBICIDE FOR STEM TREATMENTS (Direct cambium contact)

Triclopyr ester or amine @ 50%

Must be applied within MINUTES

Most effective in late summer or fall

TREE CONTROL OPTIONS

Option 2: Treat standing trees

Methods: Girdling
Drilling
Frilling
Basal bark treatments

BASAL BARK TREATMENT

Trunk up to 3" diameter: 8% strength

Trunk up to 8" diameter: 15% strength

Apply a 6" to 15" wide band around trunk down to ground

TIMING: Most effective in late summer and fall. Apply when temperature is below 80 degrees.

SEMPERVIRENS FUND
WILDLANDS RESTORATION TEAM
"for the preservation of redwood lands"

Limitations of Flaming:

Not effective for plants with protected meristems (grasses, etc.)

Not as effective when plants are beyond seedling stage.

Not effective on plants with significant underground storage organs.

Must be done in wet conditions!

Hedera Helix Cultivars

