

2002 Red Alert!

New Invasions and Recent Expansions in California

Mandy Tu & John Randall
The Nature Conservancy's Wildland Invasive Species Team
imtu@tnc.org (530) 754-8891

<http://tncweeds.ucdavis.edu>

New Invaders to California

Undaria pinnatifida
(Japanese kelp, Asian seaweed, wakame)

Photos by Kathy Ann Miller

Undaria pinnatifida

Photos by Kathy Ann Miller

Sesbania punicea
(rattlebox, Chinese wisteria)

Washingtonia robusta
(Mexican fan palm)

Recent Expansions in California

Hypericum canariense
(Canary Island St. Johnswort)

Photos by John Wade

Hypericum canariense

Centaurea x pratensis
C. jacea x nigra
(meadow knapweed)

Centaurea x pratensis

Cynoglossum officinale
(houndstongue)

Photos by John Randall

Centaurea maculosa
(spotted knapweed)

Photos by John Randall

Something to watch for... even more closely...

???

Zantedeschia aethiopica !!! (calla lily)

Acknowledgements:

Cindy Burrascano - CNPS

Dr. Chris Carmichael - Berkeley Botanic Gardens

Dr. Ellen Dean - UC Davis

Dr. Joe DiTomaso - UC Davis

Dr. Barbara Ertter - UC Berkeley

Dr. Fred Hrusa - CDFA

Dr. Dean Kelch - UC Berkeley

Dr. Kathy Ann Miller - USC

Carri Pirosko - CDFA

Mona Robison - UC Davis

Dr. Andrew Sanders - UC Riverside

Dr. Carol Thornber - UC Davis