

Weed Alert! Cheatgrass

Cheatgrass

(Bromus tectorum)

Mature Size Knee

Description

- Up to 2.5 ft. annual grass with soft, drooping seedheads
- Yellowish-green seedheads are bristly, in a loose, branched cluster
- Seeds have slender, straight bristle at the tip that are 1/3-3/4 in. long
- Seedheads turn reddish-purple as they mature
- Leaves densely covered with short, soft hairs
- Reproduces by seed
- Spread by construction equipment, roads, wind, wildlife, livestock, hay, forage, seed
- Native to Europe, southwestern Asia, and northern Africa

Bloom Period May - Jun

Habitat Scrub, chaparral, grassland, woodland, forest

2-Minute Removal Pull

Image credits: Front and back: J.M. DiTomaso ©2007 The Regents of the University of California; icons by Tim Hyland
These cards were adapted from a design by National Park Service.