

Weed Alert!

Longflowered veldtgrass

Longflowered veldtgrass

(Ehrharta longiflora)

Mature Size Knee

Description

- Erect annual grass to about 2 ft. tall
- Flowerheads 4-6 in. long
- Leaves generally lack hairs but may be minutely hairy
- Papery membrane at junction of leaf blade and outer grass sheath is large and often violet-tinged, usually covered with long, soft, fine hairs

- Reproduces by seed
- Spread by roads, equipment, recreation, seed
- Native to South Africa

Bloom Period Apr - May

Habitat Coastal scrub

2-Minute Removal Pull

Image credits: Front top and bottom: J.M. DiTomaso ©2007 The Regents of the University of California, Front center and back: Harry Rose; icons by Tim Hyland
These cards were adapted from a design by National Park Service.