

Weed Alert!

Gazania

Gazania

(Gazania linearis)

Mature Size Ankle, ground-cover

Description

- 8-10 in. tall mat-forming or clumping perennial plant with showy daisy-like flowers
- Some petals striped from bright yellow to deep orange
- Oval to linear-shaped leaves of dark green with woolly undersides
- 3 in. wide flowerheads mature to tufts of hairy seeds as petals die back
- Reproduces by seed and from spreading crowns
- Spread by roads, wind, garden waste, horticulture
- Native to southern Africa

Bloom Period Jan - Dec

Habitat Urban coastal areas, grassland, woodland

2-Minute Removal Dig

Image credits: Front top/bottom: Anthony Valois, PhD, Front center: Phlufii, Back bottom: Tracey Slotta, hosted by the USDA-NRCS PLANTS Database, Back top/center: Sheldon Navie; icons by Tim Hyland

These cards were adapted from a design by National Park Service.