

Weed Alert! Toadflaxes

Toadflaxes

(Linaria spp.)

Mature Size Waist

Description

- Erect, most hairless perennials up to 3 ft. tall
- Yellow, snapdragon-type flower with long pointed spur
- Opposite leaves without petiole leaf bases sometimes clasping
- Reproduces by seed and from rhizomes and root fragments
- Spread by roads or horticulture
- Native to Europe

Bloom Period Apr - Sep

Habitat Grassland, scrub, forest

2-Minute Removal Dig

Image credits: Front top: Mark Turner 2005, Front center: Bob Case, Front bottom: Bob Case; USFS, Back bottom: © Regents of the University of California; icons by Tim Hyland
These cards were adapted from a design by National Park Service.