

Weed Alert!
Three corner onion

Three corner onion

(Allium triquetrum)

Mature Size Knee

Description

- 1-2 ft. perennial herb with grass-like leaves and white drooping flowers
- Flowering stems are sharply three-cornered and topped by groups of 3-15 flowers
- Leaves are light green and hairless
- Leaves and bulbs have a distinct onion or garlic odor when crushed
- Oval bulbs have a thin, somewhat translucent yellowish-brown outer coat
- Reproduces by seed and from underground bulblets
- Spread by horticulture, roads, soil movement
- Native to the Mediterranean region

Bloom Period Mar - Apr

Habitat Disturbed sites in moist coastal areas, grasslands, river banks

2-Minute Removal Dig

Image credits: Front top/center: Nhu Nguyen, Front: bottom KENPEI, Back: Paulu; icons by Tim Hyland
These cards were adapted from a design by National Park Service.