Weed Alert!
Bridal veil broom

www.cal-ipc.org
Bridal veil broom
(Genista monosperma)

Mature Size  Shoulder

Description
- Perennial evergreen shrub up to 12 ft. with fragrant white pea-like flowers and a “weeping” habit
- White flowers have dark purple modified leaves directly below the petals
- Seed pods are nearly round and contain only 1-2 seeds
- Does not have “leafy” leaves, but has many green stems
- Mature stems are woody, while young stems are green
- Reproduces by seed and vegetatively from plant fragments
- Spread by birds, wildlife, horticulture
- Native to Africa and the Mediterranean Region

Bloom Period  Feb - Jun

Habitat  Woodland, coastal scrub and prairie, grassland, chaparral

2-Minute Removal  Dig

Image credits: Front top/center: Javier martin, public domain, Front bottom: Jason Giessow, Back top: Ximenex, Back bottom: Lumbar; icons by Tim Hyland These cards were adapted from a design by National Park Service.