

Weed Alert!

Canarian Sea Lavender

Canarian Sea Lavender

(Limonium perezii)

Mature Size Knee

Description

- Perennial evergreen herb up to 3 ft. tall
- Large flowerhead of bright purple and white papery blooms held in dense clusters on stiff stems
- Grey-green leaves up to 1 ft. long, clustered in low-growing rosettes
- Reproduces by seed and from rhizomes
- Spread by waterways and horticulture
- Native to the Canary Islands

Bloom Period Mar - Sep

Habitat Wetlands, coastal salt marsh, coastal bluffs

2-Minute Removal Dig

Image credits: Front top: ©2010 Steven Thorsted, Front bottom: ©2005 Luigi Rignanese, Back: Stan Shebs; icons by Tim Hyland
These cards were adapted from a design by National Park Service.