

Weed Alert!
Lily of the valley vine

Lily of the valley vine

(Salpichroa organifolia)

Mature Size Vine

Description

- Perennial vine or trailing shrub with oval, hairy leaves and single, white or cream-colored, bell-shaped flowers with five petals
- Round or egg-shaped berries are green and ill-smelling
- Finely-hairy leaves have smooth edges in pairs of two unequally-sized leaves, or alternate equally-sized leaves
- Younger stems are round and hairy, older stems have four sides
- Reproduces by seed and from rhizomes and root sprouts
- Spread by wildlife and horticulture
- Native to South America

Bloom Period Mar - Oct

Habitat Disturbed sites, riparian, canyons

2-Minute Removal Dig

Image credits: Front: ©2012 Jean Pawek; Back top ©2007 Zoya Akulova; Back bottom: ©2012 Jean Pawek ; icons by Tim Hyland
These cards were adapted from a design by National Park Service.