

Seeing Past the Trees

Tim Hyland
Environmental Scientist
Santa Cruz District

“...to preserve the states extraordinary biological diversity...”

I can think of few more tasteless acts than to plant a tree in a naturally treeless place imbued with the power and beauty of eternity all its own.

Ansel Adams