

Weed Alert!

Fennel

Fennel

(Foeniculum vulgare)

Mature Size Shoulder

Description

- Up to 10 ft. aromatic perennial with yellow flowers
- Tiny flowers form umbrella-shaped clusters about 4 in. across
- Carrot-like finely-divided feathery leaves
- Leaves, stems, roots and seeds are hairless with a strong licorice scent
- Reproduces by seed and from root and crown fragments
- Spread by human activities, roads, trails, wildlife, livestock, equipment, floods
- Native to southern Europe and the Mediterranean region

Bloom Period May - Sep

Habitat Coastal scrub and prairie, chaparral, grassland, riparian, woodland

2-Minute Removal Dig

