

Weed Alert!

Herb Robert, Stinky Bob

Herb Robert, Stinky Bob

(Geranium robertianum)

Mature Size Ankle

Description

- Up to 2 ft. high and wide shallow-rooted climbing to erect annual herb
- 5-petaled flowers in all shades of pink, sometimes white, and usually in pairs
- Deeply-lobed opposite leaves are ¼-½ in. and turn red when dying
- Stems are red and leaves are green
- Leaves, stems, and outer parts of flower are very hairy
- Leaves have an unpleasant odor
- Reproduces by seed
- Spread by water and horticulture
- Native to Europe

Bloom Period Apr - Sept

Habitat Broadleaved upland forest, North Coast and closed cone coniferous forests, cismontane woodland, riparian, coastal regions, disturbed sites

2-Minute Removal Pull

Image credits: Front top: Svdmlen, Front center: Eruendil, Front bottom and Back top: Rob Routledge, Sault College, Bugwood.org, Back bottom: J.M. DiTomaso ©2007 The Regents of the University of California; icons by Tim Hyland
These cards were adapted from a design by National Park Service.