Weed Alert! Crown daisy

Crown daisy

(Glebionis coronaria)

Mature Size Knee

Description

- Up to 2½ ft. annual with ferny foliage and characteristic daisy-shaped flowers
- Flowers are up to 2½ in. wide and have bright to pale yellow, sometimes white-tipped petals
- Alternate, feathery, aromatic leaves are up to 4 in.
 long, deeply divided and branching

- Stems erect and hairless
- Leaves, flowers, and seeds give off a pleasant chamomile scent
- All plant parts are edible
- Reproduces by seed
- Spread by roads, horticulture, ants, wildlife, waterfowl, and livestock
- Native to the Mediterranean region and East Asia

Bloom Period Mar - Jul

Habitat Riparian, coastal regions, disturbed sites

2-Minute Removal Pull

Image credits: Front top: Laitche; Front center: KENPEI; Front bottom: Dalgial;, Back: Javier Martin; icons by Tim Hyland These cards were adapted from a design by National Park Service.