

Weed Alert!

Algerian sea lavender

Algerian sea lavender

(Limonium ramosissimum)

Mature Size Knee

Description

- 1 ft. salt-tolerant perennial with flowers at the end of upright stems
- Small whitish-purple or lavender-pink flowers < 0.2 in. wide
- Low-growing clusters of leaves look like “pom-poms” and act as a groundcover

- Egg-shaped leaves attach to stem at the most narrow end
- Reproduces by seed
- Spread by water and horticulture
- Native to coastal Mediterranean regions

Bloom Period May - Nov

Habitat Salt marsh, coastal grassland, scrub

2-Minute Removal Pull

Image credits: Front top and bottom: Sten Porse, license: CC-BY 3.0, Front center and back: CNPS, San Luis Obispo chapter; icons by Tim Hyland

These cards were adapted from a design by National Park Service.