

Weed Alert!

Himalayan blackberry

Himalayan blackberry

(Rubus armeniacus)

Mature Size Shoulder

Description

- Prickly perennial shrub that can form impenetrable thickets up to 15 ft. tall
- White to pale pink flowers have 5 petals and are 1 in. wide
- Leaves of 5 leaflets (sometimes 3) with white undersides
- 5-angled stem with stout, curved thorns
- Fruits are blackberries that ripen from green to black, and are ~ 1/2 in. wide
- Reproduces by seed and by rooting at stem nodes
- Spread by birds or other animals
- Native to Europe

Bloom Period Apr - Aug

Habitat Riparian, scrub, grassland, forest

2-Minute Removal Dig