

NON-CHEMICAL WEED CONTROL TECHNIQUES TRAINING

When: Tuesday, February 25

Time: 9 am – 2:30 pm

Cost: FREE

Where: Richard C. Trudeau Center
11500 Skyline Blvd., Oakland, CA 94619

Who: Practitioners who would like to use non-chemical techniques

Learn when, where, and how to use non-chemical weed control techniques effectively, including whole plant removal, cutting, mowing, girdling, tarping, mulching, flaming, steaming, grazing, and more!

DPR Continuing Education credits are pending.

Register: www.cal-ipc.org/nonchemtraining

Limit: 50 attendees

Coffee and a light lunch are included

Brought to you by the California Invasive Plant Council and UC Agriculture and Natural Resources with funding from the California Department of Pesticide Regulation